Has composed an initiative to supply your employees with supplemental insurance and financial protection via payroll deduction!

The Advantages

- No Employee Minimums
- Special Underwriting
- Exclusive Benefit Specialist
- Payroll Deduction

AWD and PayMaster are striving to offer large group underwriting advantages to small employers by providing benefits you may not have been able to offer your employees until now. We will also provide you with the means to amplify the diversity of your existing core benefits to better meet the needs and demands of your employees.

To accomplish this goal, we designed this program without minimum employee participation requirements, allowing you to enroll even if you have only one employee in your workforce. The blueprint of this program makes it possible for a workforce of 10 to provide employees with special underwriting, which at one time was only available to work forces of 50 or more employees.

Administration for each individual work site benefits project will be handled by one of our Exclusive Benefit Specialists. The Exclusive Benefits Specialist will work with you to develop a benefits plan consisting of products that are compatible with the needs of your employees. They will also coordinate the enrollment process, as well as, maintain any ongoing communication that may be necessary between your employees regarding the administration of policies and benefits by offering valuable post-sale service support.

Through the use of our Exclusive Benefit Specialists we will strive to administer your payroll deductions with simplicity and ease. Premium deductions will be executed by us so there will be no additional work or fee required from you. Allstate Workplace Division product premiums are paid by the employees through payroll deduction at no cost to you, the employer.

Here at Allstate Workplace Division, we are proud to be an essential tier in a Fortune 100 company and we would like to offer you the comfort of knowing that the commitment and dedication it takes to reach this high standard will be seen in our partnership with you and your employees. We would like our experience, as the 3rd largest provider of voluntary insurance benefits to American workers, to comfort you in your decision to allow us to offer payroll deducted benefits that not only benefit your employees but also build your reputation as a generous and caring employer.
